

Dentist-patient arbitration agreement

Article 1: Agreement to Arbitrate: It is understood that any dispute as to malpractice that is as to whether any medical services rendered under arbitration as provided by California law, and not by lawsuit or resort to court process except as California law provides for judicial review of arbitration proceedings. Both parties to this contract, by entering into it are giving up their constitutional rights to have any such dispute decide in a court of law before a jury. And instead are accepting the use of arbitration.

Article 2: All Claims Must be Arbitrated: It is the intention of the parties that this agreement bind all parties whose claims may arise out of or related treatment or service provided by the physician including any spouse or heirs of the patient and any children whether born or unborn at the time of occurrence giving rise to any claim. In the case of any pregnant mother the term "patient" here in shall mean both the mother and the mother's expected child or children.

All claims for monetary damages, exceeding the jurisdictional limit of the small claims court against the physician, and the physician's partners, associates, association corporation or partnership and the employees agents and estates of any of them must be arbitrated including without limitation claims for loss of consortium, illicit death, emotional distress or punitive damages. Filing of any action in any court by the physician to collect fees from the patient shall not waive the right to compel arbitration of any malpractice claim.

Article 3: Procedures and Applicable Law: A demand for arbitration must be communicated in writing to all parties. Each party shall select an arbitrator (party arbitrator) with thirty day and a third arbitrator (neutral arbitrator) shall be selected by the arbitrators appointed by the parties within thirty days of a demand for a neutral arbitrator by either party. Each party to the arbitration shall pay such party's pro rata share of the expenses and fees of the neutral arbitrator, together with the other expenses of the arbitration incurred or approved by the neutral arbitrator, not including counsel fees, or other expenses incurred by a party for such party's own benefit. The parties agree that the arbitrators have immunity of a judicial officer from civil liability when acting in the capacity of arbitrator under this contract. This Immunity shall supplement, not supplant, any other applicable statutory or common law.

Each party shall have the absolute right to arbitrate separately the issues of liability and damages upon written request to the neutral arbitrator.

The parties consent to the intervention and joinder in this arbitration of any person or entity which would otherwise be a proper additional party in the court action and upon such intervention and joinder any existing court action against such additional person or entity shall be stayed pending arbitration.

The parties agree that provisions of California law applicable to health care providers shall apply to disputes with this arbitration agreement, including, but not limited to Code of Civil Procedures Section 340.5 and 667.6 and Civil Code Sections 3333.1 and 3333.2. Any party may bring before the arbitrators a motion for summary judgment or summary adjudication in accordance with the Code of Civil procedure. Discovery shall be conducted pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1283.05, however, depositions may be taken without prior approval of the neutral arbitrator.

Article 4: General Provisions: All claims based on the same incident, transaction or related circumstances shall be arbitrated in once proceeding. A claim shall be waived and forever barred if (1) on the date notice thereof is received, the claim, if asserted in a civil action, would be barred by the applicable California statute of limitations, or (2) the claimant fails to pursue the arbitration claim in accordance with the procedures prescribed herein with reasonable diligence. With respect to any matter not herein expressly provided for, the arbitrators shall be governed by the California Code of Civil Procedures provisions relating to arbitration.

Article 5: Revocation: This agreement may be revoked by written notice delivered to the physician within 30 days of signature. It is the intent of this agreement to apply to all medical services rendered any time for any condition.
